So for now, I'll just post about the errors I get. Bounty board list says the bounty is 60 points.. The amount of points in each line has to be shown as well. So I still need to calculate which item the points are allocated too (the amount of points are with two decimals). No activity points were awarded. Because if I used my point to post bounty (52 points), then I earned 12 Activity points and if I used another's points, then I earned 12 Activity points. Now I have 16 activity points instead of 12. Also, what exactly does a bounty hunter mean? I read it as bounty hunter signup. Is it a bounty hunter that posts a bounty? (a bounty would be the actual bounty, not a hunter's signup bonus in this game, right?) Hey guys, Bounty board says I'm a bounty hunter, how do I earn points? Currently I have 132 activity points, and I'm sure I posted the bounty, but I didn't receive points for it. There is no indication of "activity points" earned. I've posted another thread on this topic, but I'll post again because someone told me it was off topic. The game seems to be an hour or two behind the main site. When you start up the game you are given 50 points to spend on the first open job board. The number of points you have on the board when a bounty is posted goes up by 30% of the bounty amount. So if a bounty was posted for 100 points, your initial points on the board will be 30% of 100, or 30. Bounties on PS are not paid to the hunters that post them. If a bounty is posted on mobile, the points go to the hunters that are working on it.Q: e79caf774b
